Create a piece of art work – use the internet to look at images of how different countries celebrate Christmas and New Year and then re-create the picture. You could use a range of materials or resources – colouring pen or pencils, chalk, paint, tissue paper, object you find around the house or objects you find outside.

Activity 3

Look through some old photos of previous celebrations you and your family have taken part in.

Can you remember what the celebration was for? Why did you celebrate it? Why do you and your family celebrate the way you do?

Family photos

Activity 4

Research some different celebrations that happen around the world that we might not take part in.

For example – Diwali in India.

Find out what they are, how they are celebrated and what countries celebrate them.

Write a paragraph about your findings

Challenge: draw a picture to show what this celebration might look like.

Activity 5

- On Purple Mash there is a whole section on different celebrations around the world. Log into your purple mash and take a look. There are art activities or other games and activities to do.
- On the home page click on topics and then celebrations and faiths.
