

Theme

Amazing animals!

Expressive Arts and Design

- Selecting the appropriate resources for our work
- Acting out stories and poems
- Exploring instruments in music

Physical Development

- Understand our basic needs
- PE- moving on different parts of our bodies, big and small movements.

Religious Education

Which stories are special and why?

Literacy

- Beginning to read simple sentences
- Discussing books we have read and sequencing key parts
- Labelling key events from a story

Year R Curriculum Newsletter
Spring Term 1, 2024

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Keeping healthy – being positive about ourselves and mindfulness
- Understanding how our actions can affect ourselves and others
  - Healthy me

Maths

- One more to 5
- One less to 5
- All about the number 0
- Simple bonds to 5

Understanding the World

- Looking at changes, e.g. melting/freezing
- Making observations of seasonal changes

Communication and Language

- Discussing books and reading together
  - Explaining why
- Responding to others suggestions

If you have any questions at all, please drop in and ask!

Kind regards,
Miss Lowe